

“Based upon the success of this park (BLCP), the City (of Buffalo) acquired the 185-acre former Republic Steel site on the south side of the city. The addition of these high-quality development sites will keep the City Submarket well positioned for future opportunities.”

